

Cal Poly Humboldt

Professional Development Funds

Cal Poly Humboldt has $28,000 in professional development funds available. The goal of the funding is to increase retention of Black, Indigenous, and/or identify, in whole or in part, as a Person of Color (BIPOC) faculty. Funding can be used for professional development activities, including purchasing of research and/or teaching supplies, and registration and travel to a professional conference. All instructional faculty are welcome to apply for the funding. Awards ranging from several hundred up to $3,000 are anticipated. All funds are to be expended by October 1, 2022. Please use this document to apply for the funding.

Review of applications will begin on March 1, 2022.

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Name: _____

College: _____

Department: _____

Rank: _____

In 500 words or less, please briefly describe how and when you will use the funding.

In 500 words or less, please briefly describe how your proposed activity will increase the retention of BIPOC faculty at Humboldt State University.

PLEASE INDICATE THE AMOUNT BEING REQUESTED (UP TO $3,000): _____

REVIEWED:

AVP for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Date:

AVP for Faculty Affairs

Date:

Distribution: Approved copies distributed electronically to Department Chair, College Dean, and OAA.